

Denver Public Library's Scavenger Hunt Challenge

You can COUNT on us
this summer!

If you enjoy exploring new places and appreciate games with clues, you'll want to participate in this Scavenger Hunt Challenge.

Complete any of the scavenger hunt challenges at participating branch locations and pick up this limited edition coin.

For participating branch locations and instructions, visit denverlibraryadventures.org

Examine the painting below. What do you see? Write it down here:

The painting has various images that create one picture. The images are clues that let you know which Denver Public Library location it is and where to start your scavenger hunt.

If you don't know which branch location this painting refers to then visit with library staff to have them help you decipher the clues or flip this page over and find the answer.

Did you figure out which branch location it is? If you did, then you're ready to solve the verses that are accompanied with a photo.

The verses will give you a notion of where to find each answer that will ultimately lead you to your goal.

Ready to start? Flip the page to find your verses.

1

A Sundolier at a great height harvests and draws in the light
To start this quiz of puzzling culture count the ovals in the sculpture

Write the answer: _____

2

To solve this one you'll need to gaze down, toward your feet
Add up the number of clear floor panels—what a fun little treat!

Write the answer: _____

3

Dance in the dark of night
Sing to the morning light
After you've read your entire stack
Here's where you BRING IT _____

Write the answer: _____

4

Look towards the sky and you may spy
These lamps that hang from the ceiling
Now take a stroll and count them all
And you'll get that "I-finished-the-scavenger-hunt" feeling!

Write the answer: _____

Did you find all the answers?
Congratulations! Bring your
