

Denver Public Library's Scavenger Hunt Challenge

Westwood:

Small but Mighty

If you enjoy exploring new places and appreciate games with clues, you'll want to participate in this Scavenger Hunt Challenge.

Complete any of the scavenger hunt challenges at participating branch locations and pick up this limited edition coin.

For participating branch locations and instructions, visit denverlibraryadventures.org

Examine the painting below. What do you see? Write it down here:

The painting has various images that create one picture. The images are clues that let you know which Denver Public Library location it is and where to start your scavenger hunt.

If you don't know which branch location this painting refers to then visit with library staff to have them help you decipher the clues or flip this page over and find the answer.

Did you figure out which branch location it is? If you did, then you're ready to solve the verses that are accompanied with a photo.

The verses will give you a notion of where to find each answer that will ultimately lead you to your goal.

Ready to start? Flip the page to find your verses.

1) Go into the library and find Spirit and Fortuna. They are hiding in plain sight. Receive your prize. What prize did you get?

Write the answer:

2) Go outside to the north side of the community center. Look for the mural pictured above. What is the title of this mural?

Write the answer:

3) Find the second mural on the north side of the building. How many snowcapped mountain peaks does the mural have?

Write the answer:

4) Go back to the rotunda inside the center. Pictured in the skylight (seen above), what is the school on the t-shirt that the teenage boy is wearing?

Write the answer:

Did you find all the answers? Congratulations! Bring your answers to the branch to pick up your limited edition coin.

If you had trouble finding answers then ask a library staff member for help or look at the key below.
