YOUR BRANCH LIBRARY

Kids: Grades K-5

Ann Lincoln presents: Magic is From Mars, Juggling is from Jupiter

Monday, June 3, 3 p.m.

In this high energy performance, Ann Lincoln will use comedy, magic and juggling to show the importance of reading, learning and the universe of stories available at the library. She will fill the show with laughter and as many magic and juggling routines as possible.

Nature's Educators present Animals of the Wizarding World

Monday, June 10, 3 p.m.

Some of the fantastic beasts from the Harry Potter books and movies are real life creatures! We will introduce you to some of the animals featured in the stories and learn about their habitat, diet, and natural history.

Crafternoon: Sock Puppets and Self Portraits

Tuesday, June 11, 2 p.m.

Be an artist! Draw a self portrait from head to toe, or be an actor, you can be the star of your own theatre production with your sock puppet. Ideal for ages 1-5.

Mark Hellerstein presents, "Adventures in Ventriloquism"

Monday, June 17, 3 p.m.

Take a time machine to Dr. Frankenstein's castle with Ventriloquist Mark Hellerstein and friends like Winston, the Bookworm, and Pansy, the baby chimpanzee. Enjoy participation and laughs, and one audience member will be invited on stage to become a "live" puppet!

4/5 Book Group

Thursday, June 20, 2 p.m.

This month's selection: Lisa McMann's The Unwanteds. This group is for kids entering 4th or 5th grade. Registration is required.

Fun Stuff presented by Peter Davison

Monday, June 24, 3 p.m.

National Juggling Champion and kinetic comedian Peter Davison creates movement magic with objects. With laughs, gasps, and participation, Peter captivates all ages while revealing how fun ordinary stuff can be.

Crafternoon: Clay Sculptures

Tuesday, June 25, 2 p.m.

Be a sculptor! Create a masterpiece of your own design using clay and creativity. Ideal for all ages.
